WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
	RATE	APR	Residential construction remains lackluster. On a year-to-date basis, single-family housing starts were up 7.2% in November, while multifamily starts were down 27%. Heavy supply of new apartments has underpinned the downturn in multifamily construction. Filings for apartment building permits have fallen off as well, signaling weak activity in the coming months. Conditions are brighter in the single-family market. The National Association of Home Builders' gauge for future sales rose three points to 66 in December, which is the highest since 2022. While mortgage rates continue to trend up, single-family home builders have used price cuts and other incentives to alleviate affordability challenges. We look for total housing starts to increase 2.4% in December to a 1.320K-unit annual pace. Source: Wells Fargo Bank Weekly Economic and Financial Commentary

WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
	RATE	APR	Residential construction remains lackluster. On a year-to-date basis, single-family housing starts were up 7.2% in November, while multifamily starts were down 27%. Heavy supply of new apartments has underpinned the downturn in multifamily construction. Filings for apartment building permits have fallen off as well, signaling weak activity in the coming months. Conditions are brighter in the single-family market. The National Association of Home Builders' gauge for future sales rose three points to 66 in December, which is the highest since 2022. While mortgage rates continue to trend up, single-family home builders have used price cuts and other incentives to alleviate affordability challenges. We look for total housing starts to increase 2.4% in December to a 1.320K-unit annual pace. Source: Wells Fargo Bank Weekly Economic and Financial Commentary

WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
CONV	RATE 6.63%	APR 6.91%	Residential construction remains lackluster. On a year-to-date basis, single-family housing starts were up 7.2% in November, while multifamily starts were down 27%. Heavy supply of new apartments has underpinned the downturn in multifamily construction. Filings for apartment building permits have fallen off as well, signaling weak activity in the coming months. Conditions are brighter in the single-family market. The National Association of Home Builders' gauge for future sales rose three points to 66 in December, which is the highest since 2022. While mortgage rates continue to trend up, single-family home builders have used price cuts and other incentives to alleviate affordability challenges. We look for total housing starts to increase 2.4% in December to a 1.320K-unit annual pace. Source: Wells Fargo Bank Weekly Economic and Financial Commentary
