WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
CONV	RATE 6.13%	APR 6.51%
FHA	6.50%	6.85%
10 Yr Yield	3.96%		As widely expected, the FOMC left the fed funds target range unchanged at 5.25%-5.50% in a unanimous vote. The decision marked the third consecutive meeting that the Committee held policy steady. While the rate decision came as no surprise, this week's meeting shaped up to be one of the clearest messages yet that the torrid hiking cycle that began in March 2022 has come to an end. The meeting statement noted the FOMC would continue to take into account the cumulative amount of tightening undertaken, policy lags and economic and financial conditions when determining "any additional policy firming." This phrasing suggests to us that, in the near term, the Committee's bias for future policy adjustments remains toward higher rather than lower. That message was reiterated by Chair Powell in the post-meeting press conference when he stated that the policy rate is "likely at or near its peak" and that the FOMC is "prepared to tighten policy further, if appropriate." WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
CONV	RATE 6.13%	APR 6.51%
FHA	6.50%	6.85%
10 Yr Yield	3.96%		As widely expected, the FOMC left the fed funds target range unchanged at 5.25%-5.50% in a unanimous vote. The decision marked the third consecutive meeting that the Committee held policy steady. While the rate decision came as no surprise, this week's meeting shaped up to be one of the clearest messages yet that the torrid hiking cycle that began in March 2022 has come to an end. The meeting statement noted the FOMC would continue to take into account the cumulative amount of tightening undertaken, policy lags and economic and financial conditions when determining "any additional policy firming." This phrasing suggests to us that, in the near term, the Committee's bias for future policy adjustments remains toward higher rather than lower. That message was reiterated by Chair Powell in the post-meeting press conference when he stated that the policy rate is "likely at or near its peak" and that the FOMC is "prepared to tighten policy further, if appropriate." WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
CONV	RATE 6.13%	APR 6.51%
FHA	6.50%	6.85%
10 Yr Yield	3.96%		As widely expected, the FOMC left the fed funds target range unchanged at 5.25%-5.50% in a unanimous vote. The decision marked the third consecutive meeting that the Committee held policy steady. While the rate decision came as no surprise, this week's meeting shaped up to be one of the clearest messages yet that the torrid hiking cycle that began in March 2022 has come to an end. The meeting statement noted the FOMC would continue to take into account the cumulative amount of tightening undertaken, policy lags and economic and financial conditions when determining "any additional policy firming." This phrasing suggests to us that, in the near term, the Committee's bias for future policy adjustments remains toward higher rather than lower. That message was reiterated by Chair Powell in the post-meeting press conference when he stated that the policy rate is "likely at or near its peak" and that the FOMC is "prepared to tighten policy further, if appropriate."
