WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
CONV			Most of the economic data released last week handily beat market expectations, which is just the latest sign that the economic recovery is regaining momentum after slowing toward the end of 2020. Fed Chair Powell commented on the white-hot housing market. Over the past few months, low mortgage rates have led to surging home sales. With relatively scarce supply on the market, home price appreciation has heated up considerably in December, the S&P CoreLogic National Home Price Index accelerated to a 10.4% year-over-year pace, the fastest since 2014. There were some signs of cooling in the housing market this week. During the week ending February 19, mortgage applications for purchase declined 11.6%, the third straight decline. Pending home sales, which lead existing sales by a month or two, dropped 2.8% in January. Mortgage rates have moved slightly higher in recent weeks, which partially explains some recent pullback. 			Most of the economic data released last week handily beat market expectations, which is just the latest sign that the economic recovery is regaining momentum after slowing toward the end of 2020. Fed Chair Powell commented on the white-hot housing market. Over the past few months, low mortgage rates have led to surging home sales. With relatively scarce supply on the market, home price appreciation has heated up considerably in December, the S&P CoreLogic National Home Price Index accelerated to a 10.4% year-over-year pace, the fastest since 2014. There were some signs of cooling in the housing market this week. During the week ending February 19, mortgage applications for purchase declined 11.6%, the third straight decline. Pending home sales, which lead existing sales by a month or two, dropped 2.8% in January. Mortgage rates have moved slightly higher in recent weeks, which partially explains some recent pullback. WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
CONV	RATE 2.63%	APR 2.89%
FHA	2.25%	2.91%	Most of the economic data released last week handily beat market expectations, which is just the latest sign that the economic recovery is regaining momentum after slowing toward the end of 2020. Fed Chair Powell commented on the white-hot housing market. Over the past few months, low mortgage rates have led to surging home sales. With relatively scarce supply on the market, home price appreciation has heated up considerably in December, the S&P CoreLogic National Home Price Index accelerated to a 10.4% year-over-year pace, the fastest since 2014. There were some signs of cooling in the housing market this week. During the week ending February 19, mortgage applications for purchase declined 11.6%, the third straight decline. Pending home sales, which lead existing sales by a month or two, dropped 2.8% in January. Mortgage rates have moved slightly higher in recent weeks, which partially explains some recent pullback.
