WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
CONV	RATE 6.65%	APR 6.75%	For the week ending December 30, total mortgage applications fell 10.3%. Over the year, mortgage applications ended the year down 71.4%, driven by an 86.8% drop in refinance applications. Mortgage applications for purchases are also in retreat, dropping 12.0% during the week and 42.4% from a year ago. Purchase applications ended the year at their lowest level since 2015, while refinance applications were at their lowest since 1997. This past year's plummet in refinancing and purchasing activity reflect sharply higher mortgage rates. According to the Mortgage Bankers Association, the average 30-year fixed mortgage rate closed out 2022 at 6.58%, nearly double the level in the last week of 2021. The volume share of mortgage applications with adjustable rates also increased over the year, more than doubling from 3.1% in the first week of January to 7.3% in the last week of December. The average loan size among mortgages for purchase declined 3.5% over the year. Falling average loan size is yet another piece of evidence that home prices are declining as higher mortgage rates crush affordability for prospective buyers. Even with prices declining on a month-to-month basis, the median existing single-family home price as of November was still up nearly 20% over its level two years prior. ## WEEKLY FINANCIAL NEWS

Financing			Market Commentary
CONV			For the week ending December 30, total mortgage applications fell 10.3%. Over the year, mortgage applications ended the year down 71.4%, driven by an 86.8% drop in refinance applications. Mortgage applications for purchases are also in retreat, dropping 12.0% during the week and 42.4% from a year ago. Purchase applications ended the year at their lowest level since 2015, while refinance applications were at their lowest since 1997. This past year's plummet in refinancing and purchasing activity reflect sharply higher mortgage rates. According to the Mortgage Bankers Association, the average 30-year fixed mortgage rate closed out 2022 at 6.58%, nearly double the level in the last week of 2021. The volume share of mortgage applications with adjustable rates also increased over the year, more than doubling from 3.1% in the first week of January to 7.3% in the last week of December. The average loan size among mortgages for purchase declined 3.5% over the year. Falling average loan size is yet another piece of evidence that home prices are declining as higher mortgage rates crush affordability for prospective buyers. Even with prices declining on a month-to-month basis, the median existing single-family home price as of November was still up nearly 20% over its level two years prior. Financing			Market Commentary
CONV	RATE 6.65%	APR 6.75%
FHA	5.89%	6.00%
10 Yr Yield	3.52%
			For the week ending December 30, total mortgage applications fell 10.3%. Over the year, mortgage applications ended the year down 71.4%, driven by an 86.8% drop in refinance applications. Mortgage applications for purchases are also in retreat, dropping 12.0% during the week and 42.4% from a year ago. Purchase applications ended the year at their lowest level since 2015, while refinance applications were at their lowest since 1997. This past year's plummet in refinancing and purchasing activity reflect sharply higher mortgage rates. According to the Mortgage Bankers Association, the average 30-year fixed mortgage rate closed out 2022 at 6.58%, nearly double the level in the last week of 2021. The volume share of mortgage applications with adjustable rates also increased over the year, more than doubling from 3.1% in the first week of January to 7.3% in the last week of December. The average loan size among mortgages for purchase declined 3.5% over the year. Falling average loan size is yet another piece of evidence that home prices are declining as higher mortgage rates crush affordability for prospective buyers. Even with prices declining on a month-to-month basis, the median existing single-family home price as of November was still up nearly 20% over its level two years prior.
